

WELCOME

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. In today’s Gospel, the wedding at Cana, where Jesus performs the first of his signs. It points toward a God who shows up not in scarcity but in abundance; not in shame, but in grace; not by fixing what is broken from a distance, but by entering fully into the life we share. Today, I invite you to notice where Christ is still at work—dwelling in the ordinary, filling what feels empty, and revealing abundant joy. Wherever you find yourself today—celebrating or weary, full or running low—you are welcome here. Grace and peace to you, and to all whom you love.

- Pastor Kjell Ferris
