
WELCOME

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church! In today's Gospel, the disciples are gathered behind locked doors—afraid and unsure of what comes next. And into that fear, the risen Christ comes and speaks the first word of Easter: "Peace be with you." We also meet Thomas—so often remembered only for doubt, who refuses easy answers. Jesus meets him with grace, invitation, and love. This is good news for anyone who has ever struggled to believe, or needed more than words.

Wherever you are today—full of faith, full of questions, or somewhere in between—you are welcome here. May this worship open your heart to Christ's peace, strengthen your trust, and send us out as people of resurrection hope.

- Pastor Kjell Ferris
